ORDER

Statement of the Case

This matter came before the Office of Campaign Finance (hereinafter OCF) Office of General Counsel following a determination by its Public Information Records Management Division, that pursuant to the D.C. Code §1-1106.02 (2001 Edition), Mario Acosta-Velez, Member, Commission on Human Rights, failed to timely file, a Financial Disclosure Statement for calendar year 2002, on or before May 15, 2003 as required by D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02 and also failed to file on or before the OCF sanctioned extended filing deadline of June 19, 2003.

By Notice of Hearing, Statement of Violations and Order of Appearance dated August 8, 2003, OCF ordered Mario Acosta-Velez (hereinafter respondent), to appear at a scheduled hearing on August 20, 2003 and show cause why he should not be found in violation of the D.C. Campaign Finance Reform and Conflict of Interest Act of 1974, as amended by D.C. Official Code §§1-1101.01 et seq., and fined accordingly.

Summary of Evidence

OCF alleges that the respondent failed to timely file the statutorily required Financial Disclosure Statement for calendar year 2002, on or before June 19, 2003.

On August 20, 2003, respondent appeared at the scheduled hearing represented by counsel, Roy L. Kaufmann, Esq., and testified that he believed he had submitted the required FDS by the May 15, 2003 deadline, prior to leaving town on a personal matter. Respondent stated he misfiled the document, and discovered the oversight after receipt of OCF's hearing notice. At the hearing, respondent presented a letter from Deborah Wood Dorsey, Chair, Commission on Human Rights (Commission), attesting to respondent's responsible character and value to the Commission, and thereby requested due consideration of same in our recommendation in this matter. OCF received an affidavit from respondent on August 13, 2003, enclosed with a fully executed FDS bearing the same date.

Findings of Fact

Having reviewed the allegations and the record herein, I find:

1. Respondent was appointed to the Commission on Human Rights on July 11, 2002.
2. Respondent was required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement with OCF for calendar year 2002, on or before June 19, 2003.
3. Respondent filed the required Financial Disclosure Statement on August 13, 2003.
4. Respondent is a first-time FDS required filer.
5. Respondent provided a credible explanation for the filing delinquency in that he assumed he had filed the FDS by the filing deadline, but discovered otherwise after receiving OCF's Notice of Hearing, Statement of Violations and Order of Appearance.
6. Respondent is currently in compliance with the statute.

Conclusions of Law

Based upon the record provided by OCF, I therefore conclude:

1. Respondent violated D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02.
2. The penalty established at D.C. Official Code §1-1103.05(b)(3), and 3 DCMR §§3711.2(aa), 3711.2 and 3711.4 for failure to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement required by D.C. Official Code §1-1106.02 is a fine of $50.00 per day for each business day subsequent to the due date.
3. In accordance with D.C. Official Code §1-1103.05(b)(3), the respondent may be fined a maximum of $1,850.00 for failing to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement.

4. For good cause shown pursuant to 3 DCMR §3711.6, the Director of Campaign Finance (Director) may modify, rescind, dismiss or suspend any fine.
5. Respondent's explanation for failing to timely file constitutes good cause for suspension of the fine.

Recommendation

In view of the foregoing and information included in the record, I hereby recommend that the Director suspend the imposition of the fine in this matter.
